A boutique, all-villa retreat on Vietnam's quiet new coast.

On the south-central coast of Vietnam, in the quiet folds of the Nhon Hoi peninsula, Mia Quy Nhon opens its doors. Ninety-four private villas look out over the bay, the breeze carries salt and citrus, and the day moves to the rhythm of the sea. Cham heritage to one side, the open coast on the other — a retreat for those who choose the place before the resort.

— CULINARY

The table at Mia Quy Nhon

Two restaurants and an in-villa table, paced to the hours of the day. Each draws on the produce of the central coast - the catch from Nhơn Lý, the herbs from the garden, the rice from the fields just inland.

Kitchen by the Ocean

Vietnamese & international, by the sea

ALL-DAY · 6:30 - 22:00

130 SEATS

Vietnamese flavours, local specialities and international favourites, overlooking the bay. Mornings open with a fresh seasonal buffet and barista coffee; through the day, à la carte coastal cooking, wood-fired pizzas and dry-aged charcuterie. A private dining room is available on request.

La Baia

Modern Italian coastal seafood

11:00 - 22:00

60 SEATS

A vibrant, modern-Italian seafood room - artisanal dishes built around the catch and local produce, wood-fire pizzas, skillets of pasta and a chef's seasonal tasting menu. Once a week, the Italian beach BBQ takes over the sand at sunset.

WELLNESS

Ô Spa

Stillness, by the sea - A sanctuary of shelter, of circle, of breath

Ô Spa is a sanctuary of stillness by the sea, set on the coast at Bình Định. The rituals draw on the salt of the sea, the herbs of the central coast, and the patient hands of our therapists. Every signature treatment opens with a welcoming ritual inspired by the local cultural heritage - the sound of traditional drums and ocean waves, gently weaving together to mark the moment your day slows down.

— DESTINATION

A coast the world has not yet notice

Quy Nhơn - in historic Bình Định, the thousand-year heartland of the Champa kingdom - is one of Vietnam's most compelling emerging destinations: golden beaches, clear waters, working fishing harbours, and Cham towers still rising from the landscape.
